ECHOES FROM THE LODGE ROOM

Shetucket Lodge Conferred Odd Fellows' Initiatory Degree—
Eagles Will Open Their Charter—Owls Plan For Whist—
Foresters to Carry Out Get-together Meetings.

LADIES AUXILIARY, A. O. H.
Dr. D. T. Shahan made a very interesting address on Public Hygiene and Sanitation at the meeting of Ladies' auxiliary, No. 18, held on Monday evening in Foresters' hall. Mrs. M. L. Silney, the president, occupied the chair and after making a few brief remarks introduced Dr. Shahan. Dr. Shahan told of right living in regard to hygienic and sanitary conditions. He advised disinfection in houses following death and said he believed the best sanitary method of disposing of the dead was by cremation. Dr. Shahan said that Norwich has an adequate supply of excellent drinking water and that there is nothing to fear at present in regard to this matter. His talk was very educational and was listened to with close attention by all present. Mrs. Thomas Dodd gave a recitation entitled "The March of the Irish Race," by James Martin. Plans were made for a St. Patrick's Tea to be held on the next meeting night which will be March 15, and at this meeting Dr. Edward Brophy will make an address, the subject of which will be announced later.

FORESTERS.
At the meeting of Court Sachem, No. 54, in Foresters' hall on Thursday evening, announcement was made of the get-together meeting to be held on the 13th of March, which is one of a series of similar meetings to be held by each of the three Foresters' courts separately on the plan that the members of each court will attend their own get-together and not that of any of the others.
The ball that the three courts are to hold jointly on Easter Monday night at Pulaski hall was called to the attention of the members and all were urged to work towards making this a grand success. It will be the first social event that the three courts have conducted jointly.
The committees from each of the courts in charge of the get-together nights are as follows:
Court City of Norwich—F. J. Murtha, William Mahoney, Frank Yerrington.
Court Sachem—J. R. Portelance, Henry Clement, Joseph Bellefleur.
Court Quinebaug—D. J. Donovan, John Hutchison, Edward McNery.

ORDER OF PROTECTION.
Only matters of a routine nature were transacted at the business meeting of Thames lodge, No. 328, held in Foresters' hall on Tuesday evening. The regular officers were present and there was a fair sized attendance.

EAGLES.
Norwich Aerie, No. 367, held their regular business meeting in Eagles' hall on Monday evening with a good attendance. The regular officers and members were present. It was voted to open the charter during the months of April, May and June and plans were made for a smoker and entertainment for April 15.

OWLS.
The members of Norwich nest, No. 1395, met on Tuesday evening in Owls' hall for their regular business session. Only matters of a routine nature were transacted. The nest will hold another whist next Friday night.

ODD FELLOWS.
The members of Uncas lodge, No. 11, held their regular meeting in Odd Fellows' hall on Monday evening with a good sized attendance. Only matters of a routine nature were transacted.

Erlo G. Barber Falls from Staggering Spraining Ankle.

Rev. Clayton A. Burdick of Westerly spoke in the Seventh Day Baptist church here, last Sunday.
Erlo G. Barber, of Woodcrest, has been confined to his home the past week with a sprained ankle, caused by a fall from a staging which gave way, while he was painting on his house.
J. P. Greene, who has been confined to his bed with rheumatism, is so much improved as to be about the house.
Mr. and Mrs. Charles Stone of Stonington, were recent callers at Woodcrest.
Arthur Burdick is working in the store of L. B. Kenyon in this village.

MISUNDERSTOOD ALBANIA
BACK IN PUBLIC EYE.

This Little Country Fears for the Future and Its Possible Breaking Up.

(Special to The Bulletin.)

Washington, C. March 5.—The invasion of Serbia a few days ago by certain Albanian troops brings that misunderrstood little country back upon the map of public opinion. The Albanians, who have been suffering for four hundred years, the people of Albania have been explained by the Ottomans, and yet, they have been loath to fight these masters lest they should lose their independence. The Albanians, mingled with their neighbors, the Greeks, and the Bulgarians, have been the backbone of the struggle for Greek independence. The Albanians, 125 years previous to the discovery of America, the proud republic of Venice had a hundred years of independence. In 1478, the Turks began their overlordship of the Albanians, broken faith and cruelty. Following the last successful war of the Balkan states, the Albanians received independent statehood. Yet the Albanians have been in the hands of the Turks for centuries. Education is their great need, according to Mr. Damon, who points out the waves and impulses of progress have failed to reach the Albanian through all his history. For a number of years, he continues, all classes of the Albanians have been Christian alike—have had a passionate desire for national education, but, as the Turkish Turk for long years, desire with all the means of a despot.

Today the Albanian is the most picturesque personality in Europe, the writer says. He still practices the vendetta, and now, as in the past, one of the most persistent fails to a sacrifice to the blood feud. To strike a person, even inadvertently, is a matter for blood revenge. If the offender himself is not killed, one of his relatives must be the victim, and thus the endless chain is begun. The vendetta may be finally bought or "called off" Mr. Damon says, according to provisions of an intricate, unwritten Albanian code.

A strong consciousness has awakened among these people as among all of the Balkan peoples, and the Albanian dreads the future, Mr. Damon concludes, because he fears that his neighbors may succeed in dividing his lands as the vulture's portion among themselves the body of the threatened desert victim. Austria may have been the victor in the north, across the water, or a European conference might decide to bestow the Albanians among the neighbors, Montenegro, Serbia and Greece.

From Banker to General.
The late Sir Luke O'Connor, V. C., belonged to the small band of British soldiers who have risen from the ranks to the position of general. One of the most notable members of this band was Sir John Elley, who entered the army as a trooper in the Horse Guards, was one of Wellington's right hand men at Waterloo, received a knighthood from George III, and represented Windsor in parliament. Joseph Brome, who enlisted as a drummer boy, rose to be a lieutenant general, and was also the grandfather of a general. Another famous banker of the name was William McBean, who at Lucknow killed eleven mutineers in single combat. A feat of heroism which made light of "Toots, man," he said, in answer to a comrade's congratulations, "I was only twenty minutes!"

WESTERLY INTERESTED IN ARRESTS

Joseph Stanton Maine Charged With Entering Ledyard Cottage—Federal Officers Slip Off Mysteriously to Boston With Joseph Tetlow—Cycle Club Feasts—Remodeled and Rededicated Methodist Church to be Reopened Sunday.

The annual supper of the Westerly Cycle club was held Friday evening at the club rooms on Main street. A Turkey supper was served, after which a social time was enjoyed by the fifty or more present. J. Herman Staub of New London, D. Lyons of Providence and members of the Edward Doyle company playing at the opera house. The supper was a success and the club members were very entertained. The cycle club orchestra of ten pieces furnished music.

At the regular session of the Third district court held Friday afternoon, Judge Oliver H. Williams presiding, three new writs were entered, namely: William H. Burdick, et al., vs. Elizabeth Hurst, Attorney Harry Charles M. Mann vs. Elizabeth Hurst, Attorney H. B. Agard; John S. Burdick vs. Elizabeth Hurst, Attorney T. L. Ledwith. The liquor and vessels seized in a raid at the Leonard house on Main street on the 23rd of February, were returned to the custody of Officer Smith by Chief Thomas E. Brown, Sergeant E. E. West and Officer Donald Ferguson. The liquor and vessels were forfeited and the liquor was ordered destroyed and warrant was ordered issued for the court to sell the vessels. Herbert A. Card is the proprietor of the place raided.

Peter Bottinelli was arraigned on a charge of keeping liquor for sale illegally. He entered a plea of not guilty and his trial was set down for Friday, March 12. The bond was fixed at $100. The case of P. Randall vs. Mary Burdick, a suit to recover $400 on a book account, alleged to be due the plaintiff for plumbing work, was set down for trial on March 19.

Joseph Stanton Maine, alias Joe Knowles, was brought to Pawcatuck Thursday evening from Charlestown by Constable Charles Fuller and was placed in the custody of Officer Smith by Nicholas. Maine was arrested on a warrant sworn out by Deputy Sheriff William H. Casey. He is charged with breaking and entering the cottage of Edward F. Yerrington, at Ledyard, Conn.

Federal officers from the immigration office at Boston, were in Pawcatuck last Thursday night, looking for Joseph Tetlow of Mechanic street into custody. Tetlow was taken to Boston by the federal authorities and no inkling of what had happened was obtained. It was rumored that Tetlow has a wife and children living in England and that he also has a wife here, but this report could not be confirmed, as the federal officers got their man and left town immediately.

An International Saint.

It is quite appropriate that Sir John French should receive the Order of St. George from the Tsar. Many people think that St. George is purely an English saint, but, as a matter of fact, the warrior saint is claimed by many European nations, and has a place even in Mohammedan reverence. As a warrior of the Near East, he naturally belongs to the Greek as well as to the Western church.—Pall Mall Gazette.

Diamond Tires satisfy 99% of their users

That means an awful lot when you come to think about it. It means built-in mileage of the sturdiest sort—and the price is honest and low, not padded.

This letter explains it:

"Philadelphia, November 28, 1914
"We believe that it will interest you to know that out of 1500 Diamond cases sold this year up to October first, the number that have been returned to us for adjustment amounted to less than one per cent. This is a remarkable showing, and speaks volumes for the quality that is built into Diamond Tires. About ninety per cent of the total number sold were Squegee Treads, which we consider the best tire value we can offer our customers. The service rendered by this type of tire is consistently uniform."
"CHILD'S TIRE COMPANY."
"Per Chas. J. Roth."

And other dealers all over the country tell the same story.

Added to the wonderful Diamond Service, you can now buy Diamond Squegee Tread Tires at the following "FAIR-LIST" PRICES:
